

Zehara Nachash
Snake Charmer

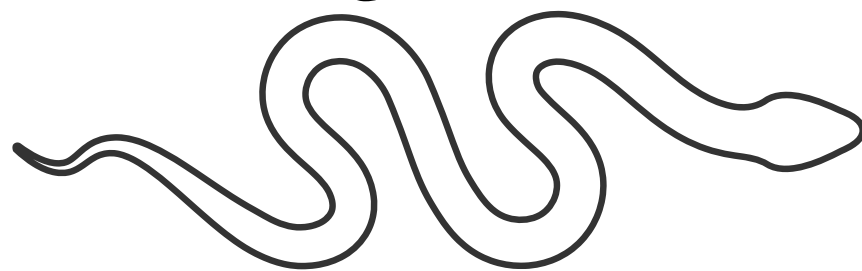

617-780-6407
Zehara@aol.com

www.SnakeandBone.com

WORKSHOPS

Zehara conducts Serpentine workshops, incorporating her tame ball pythons when the venue permits. These workshops delve into different facets of Serpentine Magick and the Divine Feminine, aiming to awaken Serpentine Energy and harness its potential for regeneration and healing. Below are the workshops offered by Zehara. If the venue permits, Zehara may bring her snakes, which will remain under her supervision at all times and participate only during ritual sessions. Handling of the snakes by class participants is strictly prohibited.

About Zehara Nachash:

Zehara Nachash, known as "Boston's Resident Snake Charmer," has mesmerized audiences since 2005 with her captivating performances. While her expertise spans various dance forms,, it's her unique blend of dance and snake handling that truly sets her apart. Zehara's act transcends traditional snake charming, forging a spiritual connection between human and serpent through graceful movements and a mesmerizing serpentine dance. Audiences are left in awe of the remarkable bond she shares with her serpentine companions, making each performance an enchanting and unforgettable experience. Inspired by her deep connection to the natural world and occult arts, Zehara's dance journey is a sacred ritual and a profound expression of spirituality that she wholeheartedly shares with her audience. Zehara and her slithering dance partners have graced various events, from weddings and birthday parties to larger venues such as online advertisements, Circus Side Shows, Theatre Shows, music videos, and even as an opening act for the Counting Crows. She has also taken on the responsibility of educating the public about snakes challenging negative stereotypes. Additionally, Zehara is a professional tarot card reader and an author known for works like "Snake and Bones, Little Book of Magick," "Grave Spirits," and "Estranged Minds," co-authored with her husband and her recent book, "Snake Charming." She contributes to Witch Way Magazine as the Proprietress of Snake & Bone, her online Occult and Magickal Shoppe.

Harnessing the Protective Power of Medusa: A Workshop on Self-Defense and Empowerment

Join us for a transformative workshop where we delve into the ancient myth of Medusa and learn to harness her protective energy for our empowerment. Medusa, often misunderstood as a monstrous figure, actually embodies resilience, strength, and the power to ward off negativity. In this workshop, participants will explore the symbolism and significance of Medusa in mythology, and discover how her story can inspire us to reclaim our sense of agency and protection in our lives.

During the workshop, we will engage in a group ritual to honor Medusa and invoke her protective energy. Through guided meditation and visualization exercises, participants will connect with the archetype of Medusa and channel her strength and courage. We will explore techniques for setting energetic boundaries, cultivating self-confidence, and defending ourselves against negative influences.

This workshop is suitable for individuals of all backgrounds and experience levels. Whether you are new to working with mythology or a seasoned practitioner, you will find inspiration and guidance in harnessing the power of Medusa for your protection and empowerment.

Key Workshop Highlights:

- Exploration of the myth of Medusa and her significance in ancient mythology
- Group ritual to honor Medusa and invoke her protective energy
- Guided meditation and visualization exercises to connect with the archetype of Medusa
- Techniques for setting energetic boundaries and cultivating self-confidence
- Practical tips for self-defense and protection in everyday life

Join us for an empowering journey of self-discovery and transformation as we tap into the protective power of Medusa and embrace our inner strength.

Embracing the Divine Feminine: Exploring the Goddess, Serpents, and Early Christianity

Join Zehara for a captivating workshop that delves into the profound symbolism of the Divine Goddess and her association with snakes, as well as their significance in early Christian traditions. Throughout history, serpents have been revered as symbols of wisdom, transformation, and spiritual awakening, often intertwined with the stories of powerful female deities.

In this workshop, we will unravel the mystique surrounding the Divine Feminine and her connection to serpents, exploring their role as symbols of intuition, healing, and the cycles of life and death. We will delve into ancient myths and legends that celebrate goddesses such as Isis, Lilith, and Athena, whose wisdom and power were often depicted alongside serpentine imagery.

Furthermore, we will explore the intriguing parallels between the ancient symbolism of serpents and their portrayal in early Christian narratives, particularly in the story of Eve and the Serpent in the Garden of Eden. Through a deeper understanding of these narratives, we will uncover the profound wisdom and knowledge that lies at the heart of these ancient teachings.

Central to our exploration will be a ritual dedicated to Eve and the Serpent as bringers of knowledge and enlightenment. Through guided meditation, ceremonial practices, and invocation, we will honor the wisdom of the Divine Goddess and her sacred connection to serpents, inviting their transformative energy into our lives.

This workshop welcomes participants of all backgrounds and spiritual traditions who seek to reconnect with the Divine Feminine and explore the profound symbolism of serpents in ancient and modern spiritual practices. Together, we will embark on a journey of self-discovery, empowerment, and spiritual awakening as we honor the timeless wisdom of the Goddess and her serpentine allies.

Serpentine Magick: Harnessing the Serpentine Energy for Regeneration and Healing

Embark on a mystical journey into the realm of Serpentine Magick as we explore the ancient wisdom and potent energy of snakes. Join us for an immersive workshop dedicated to working with snakes in magic and invoking serpentine energy to unlock the powers of regeneration and healing.

Throughout history, snakes have been revered as symbols of transformation, renewal, and healing in spiritual traditions around the world. In this workshop, we will delve into snakes' mystical symbolism and uncover their hidden teachings for personal growth and spiritual evolution.

Guided by Zehara, a 20-year experienced Snake Priestess, participants will learn practical techniques for harnessing serpentine energy in their magical practice. Through ritual invocation, meditation, and visualization exercises, we will tap into the primal essence of snakes and awaken their transformative power within ourselves.

Central to our exploration will be a sacred ritual dedicated to invoking the healing energies of serpents. Guided by the rhythmic movements of snakes and the ancient wisdom they embody, we will create a sacred space for regeneration and renewal, inviting healing and transformation into our lives.

In addition to the ritual, participants will engage in guided meditations to deepen their connection with serpentine energy and explore its healing potential. Through these practices, we will cultivate a profound sense of inner harmony and balance, allowing us to tap into the regenerative power of snakes for personal healing and spiritual growth.

This workshop is suitable for practitioners of all levels, from beginners to experienced witches and magicians, who wish to deepen their understanding of serpentine energy and its application in magical practice. Whether you are drawn to snakes for their symbolism, their mystical allure, or their healing properties, this workshop offers a unique opportunity to explore their transformative potential in a supportive and nurturing environment.

Join Zehara as we embark on a journey of discovery and transformation, harnessing the ancient wisdom of snakes to unlock the powers of regeneration and healing within ourselves.